Course Description: Does your physical education program reflect high standards you would want to advocate for? This course will assist you in making your whole school community understand that what you do is vital to students’ wellness and the total school curriculum. Advocacy will be defined in a myriad of ways and practical ideas will be given on how to advance your quality physical education program.

About the Instructor: Maria Melchionda’s experiences have included teaching in the public schools as an elementary and adapted physical educator; Past President of the Massachusetts Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance (MAHPERD) and member of the National Association for Sport & Physical Education Public Relations Committee. She has a Master’s in Educational Leadership (N-6) and is certified K-9 in physical education. She has made numerous presentations in various arenas on the national, regional and state levels pertaining to quality physical education for all students. She presently is the Executive Director of MAHPERD.
