Course Description: This course is designed to assist mainstream content teachers in designing and delivering lessons that are comprehensible to English language learners at the middle and high school levels. Participants will learn to adapt lessons and materials to help their students gain English proficiency while still providing the academic language these students require. Participants will learn hands-on strategies to increase student comprehension, class participation and higher order thinking. The course meets the requirements for Category Two of Sheltered English Immersion professional development.

About the Instructor: Robyn Dowling Grant is currently the ELL Coordinator for Lexington Public Schools.

Cancellations: No credits or refunds will be given on withdrawals less than 10 business days before the first class. Checks will be processed approximately two weeks prior to the start date of the course; other payments are processed immediately.
Note: After January 13, a $25 late fee is required with each course registration.
