Course Description: The key to a successful, high quality physical education program involves best/appropriate practices on the part of the physical educator. Discussion and sharing of these varied practices by each of the participants, as outlined by the National Association of Physical Education and Sport, will be the main focus in this course. Participants will be able to compile a notebook of appropriate practices and effective teaching strategies through networking with fellow teachers for utilization within their own programs.

About the Instructor: Maria Melchionda's experience has included teaching in the public schools as an elementary and adapted physical educator; Past President of the Massachusetts Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance; Past Member of the National Association for Sport & Physical Education Public Relations Committee; Past Chair of the Public and Legislative Affairs Committee for the American Alliance for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance and presently Chair of the Society of Association Management. She has a Master's in Educational Leadership (K-6) and is certified for K-9 in physical education. Maria has made numerous presentations in various arenas on the national, regional, and state levels pertaining to quality physical education for all students. She is presently the Executive Director of the Massachusetts Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance.
