

Common Misconceptions, Misunderstandings and Mishaps in the Spanish Language

Co-sponsored with EDCO

Audience: Teachers of Spanish, Grades 6-12
Instructor: Lisa Taub White
Dates & Times: Tuesday – Thursday, July 19-21, 2016 from 9:00 AM – 1:00PM;
Wednesday, August 10, 2016 from 9:00 AM – 1:00 PM for those taking the course for two credits
Location: EDCO, 36 Middlesex Turnpike, Bedford

Cost and Grad. Credit Options from Worcester State University:

- 1 credit ~ attend all July days ~ $195 TEC/EDCO Members; $245 Nonmembers plus $100 for the credit, payable the first session
- 2 credits ~ attend all July days and August 10 ~ create and teach a lesson ~ $245 TEC/EDCO members and Nonmembers plus $200 for the credit, payable the first session

Course Description: Become a better and more precise speaker of Spanish and more equipped to answer your students' questions and/or correct their work. This course is for Spanish teachers of all levels, who would like to hone their skills regarding information that does not come up in their textbooks.

For example:

- Is 'Roberto' el or la víctima? Can we say la tiburona?
- Is me recuerdo incorrect?
- Why can't I use the rule "le and les for people, lo and los for things"?

All of these questions and more will be topics of discussion, learning/reviewing and most importantly, speaking. Apart from conversation activities, muscle memory practice will also be a key component to making some of these more abstract and difficult concepts stick.

About the Instructor: Lisa Taub White has been teaching at Bedford High School for 18 years. She currently teaches AP Spanish Language, Spanish IV honors, and Spanish IV College Prep.
